ELIAH DRINKWITZ

HEAD COACH

Eliah Drinkwitz was named the University of Missouri's 33rd head football coach on December 10, 2019, and in five seasons at the helm has compiled a 38-24 (.613) overall ledger with 2023 Southeastern Conference (SEC) Coach of the Year honors.

With over 25 years of experience, Drinkwitz has coached in 12 bowl games, including the 2011 BCS National Championship game, and mentored 55 student-athletes to all-conference honors. He's helped develop seven All-Americans and worked with 19 National Football League (NFL) draft selections while as a head coach. Additionally, he's produced seven 1,000-yard rushers, five 3,000-yard passers and five 1,000-yard receivers throughout his career as a head coach and coordinator. During four of those years (2015, 2017, 2018 and 2023) his offenses produced at least one in each category.

His 38 wins at the helm of the Tigers program, eclipsed Dan Devine's school record for wins in the first five seasons of a Mizzou head coaching tenure. In just five years, Drinkwitz ranks tied with Al Onofrio (1971-77) for sixth all-time in program history for wins and is 50-25 (.667) overall as a head coach after leading Appalachian State University to a Sun Belt Conference Championship in 2019 following a 12-1 season.

During his time in Columbia, Drinkwitz has guided the Tigers to a 27-7 (.794) overall record on Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium, giving him the best home win percentage (minimum four seasons) in the history of the program. The Tigers' 27 home wins since 2020 is tied with Ole Miss for the third-most in the SEC. The pair trail only the University of Alabama (32) and the University of Georgia (28) during that stretch.

Under Drinkwitz's guidance over the last two years, Mizzou has finished the year ranked in the top-25 and posted a combined 21-5 overall record, including an 11-5 mark in SEC play, which is tied for the third best two-year stretch in program history. The Tigers have also gone 13-1 at home, 10-1 in one-score games, 2-0 in bowl games with victories over Ohio State University (2023 Cotton) and the University of Iowa (2024 Music City) and 4-0 against Big Ten, Big 12 and ACC opponents during that time.

Drinkwitz led MU to back-to-back 10-plus win seasons in 2023 (11-2) and 2024 (10-3) for the third time in program history (2007-08 and 2013-14) and for the eighth time overall. He joins College Football Hall of Famer Gary Pinkel (2001-15) as the only two Mizzou head coaches with multiple 10-win seasons. In addition, the postseason bowl victories in consecutive seasons (2023 and 2024) marked just the fourth time the Tigers have achieved the feat in program history (1978-79, 2007-08 and 2013-14).

During his time at Mizzou, he has mentored 16 players to 18 all-conference honors, including 10 to First Team All-SEC recognition, and coached 17 Tigers that went on to get drafted in the NFL. In 2021 and 2024, Mizzou had five and six players taken in the NFL Draft, respectively, including first-rounder Darius Robinson (2024) and second-round pick Nick Bolton (2021). Additionally, in the 2025 NFL Draft, Mizzou saw offensive lineman Armand Membou (No. 7) and wide receiver Luther Burden III (No. 39) both taken in the top 40, marking the eighth time in program history MU achieved the feat and the first time since 2011 when Aldon Smith (No. 7) and Blaine Gabbert (No. 10) were chosen.

Last season, Mizzou achieved its 15th perfect year at Memorial Stadium, its first undefeated record at home since 2010, while selling out all seven home games to mark the first Tigers season sellout since 1979. Drinkwitz had MU ranked in the top-20 in 14 different statistical categories at season's end, including third in turnovers lost (9), fifth in passes had intercepted (5), first down defense (211), and third down conversion percentage defense (.302), seventh in time of possession (34:39), 10th in red zone offense (.920) and 17th in total defense (317.5).

Quarterback Brady Cook wrapped up an illustrious career in 2024 that placed him second all-time in program history for career wins (26) and passing efficiency rating (143.53), No. 3 in passing yards (9,013) and 200-yard passing performances (26), No. 4 in total offense (10,222) and No. 5 in passing touchdowns. The 2023 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Offensive and 2024 TransPerfect Music City Bowl MVP became the first quarterback in program lore to amass 9,000-plus passing yards and 1,000-plus rushing yards (1,209) in a career and joined Chase Daniel (2005-08), Brad Smith (2002-05) and Drew Lock (2015-18) as the only players in MU history with 10,000 yards of total offense.

Additionally, Burden III concluded an impressive tenure in the Black and Gold in 2024, ranking fourth in receptions (192), tied for fifth in receiving touchdowns (21) and sixth in receiving yards (2,263).

The 2023 Tigers put together an 11-2 season that saw MU move into the top-10 of all three national polls. The double-digit wins campaign was the program's first since 2014. Mizzou went 6-2 in SEC games, won both the Mayor's Cup over South Carolina and Battle Line Rivalry over Arkansas, qualified for its first New Year's Six bowl and defeated Ohio State, 14-3, in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl. Drinkwitz was named the 2023 SEC Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award, which is a prestigious annual honor given to the nation's top coach.

The offense, led by the trio of Cook, Burden III and running back Cody Schrader, helped Mizzou become the only unit in the country that season to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver and 1,500-yard rusher. It was the first time the Tigers accomplished the feat in program history and just the second time in SEC lore. Drinkwitz mentored Burden III and Schrader to Associated Press All-America recognition. Schrader, a First Team All-Southeastern Conference (SEC) selection, was named the winner of the Burlsworth Trophy, which honors the most outstanding player in the nation who began his career as a walk-on, after he compiled 1,627 rushing yards on 276 carries (5.89) with 14 touchdowns during his final season with the Tigers. Burden III finished his career a two-time First Team All-SEC honoree (2023 & 2024).

After the season, six Tigers heard their name called during the 2024 NFL Draft, led by first-round selection defensive end Robinson to the Arizona Cardinals as the 27th overall selection. It marked the most Tigers taken at the event since 2009 when MU had two first-round picks in Jeremy Maclin (19th overall) and Ziggy Hood (32nd overall).

In his opening three seasons in Columbia (2020-22), Drinkwitz led the Tigers to 17 wins and three consecutive bowl berths (2020 TransPerfect Music City [canceled], 2021 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces and 2022 Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla). In 2022, Burden III became the first true freshman since 2008 to record two receiving touchdowns, two rushing touchdowns, and a punt-return touchdown in a single season for the Tigers. The previous year, running back Tyler Badie set the school's single-season record for rushing yards (1,604), while his 14 touchdowns in 12 games were ninth on Mizzou's single season and top-10 list. Despite his first season being plagued by the COVID-19 pandemic, Drinkwitz's 5-5 regular-season record was the league's best among the SEC's four new head coaches that season (Ole Miss' Lane Kiffin [4-5], Mississippi State's Mike Leach [3-7] and Arkansas' Sam Pittman [3-7]).

Drinkwitz came to Columbia after a one-year stint as head coach at Appalachian State, where he led the 20th-ranked Mountaineers to a 12-1 record and a Sun Belt Conference Championship with an R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl appearance. App State's win total was a Sun Belt record and set the mark for the best regular season ledger in conference history (11-1). For those efforts, Drinkwitz was named the 2019 North Carolina Coach of the Year by the North State Journal and a finalist for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Award.

Drinkwitz's 2019 team made history with a pair of Power 5 road wins at bowl-eligible North Carolina, and then later at South Carolina - making them the first Sun Belt team to register two Power 5 wins in a single season. App State proved to be one of the nation's most balanced teams, thanks in large part to an efficient offense that ranked ninth nationally in scoring (39.4), coupled with a stingy defense that ranked 22nd nationally in points allowed (20.2). Mountaineers junior running back Darrynton Evans was named the 2019 Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year, after rushing for 1,323 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Prior to his time at App State, Drinkwitz spent three years (2016-18) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Carolina State University, where he helped the Wolfpack to a 25-14 overall ledger, including three bowl appearances (2016 Camping World Independence, 2017 Hyundai Sun and 2018 TaxSlayer Gator). Following a 7-6 debut season in 2016, Drinkwitz guided the Wolfpack to consecutive nine-win seasons (2017-18) for the first time since 1991-92. Additionally, NC State made a steady rise in total offense during his tenure, going from 63rd nationally in his first season to 25th in 2017 and 16th in 2018.

HEAD COACH

While in Raleigh, Drinkwitz mentored three All-Americans in running back and all-purpose player Nyheim Hines (2017), center Garrett Bradbury (2018), and offensive guard Terrone Prescod (2018). He also had a hand in the development of 11 student-athletes, who went on to earn 17 All-ACC honors, including two-time recipients in offensive guard Tony Adams (2016-17), tight end Jaylen Samuels (2016-17), wide receiver Kelvin Harmon (2017-18), offensive tackle Tyler Jones, quarterback Ryan Finley (2017-18) and Bradbury (2017-18).

In three years as the Wolfpacks' starting quarterback, Finley finished his career with 881-of-1,365 pass attempts (.645) for 10,505 yards with 60 touchdowns and 185 rushing attempts for 309 yards (1.67) with five scores. He graduated holding the program's career record for passing yards per game (269.4) and completion percentage (.645), while ranking second in passing yards, completions, attempts, and 300-yard passing games, third in passing efficiency (140.03) and fourth in passing touchdowns. Finley would go on to be selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

For the 2014 and 2015 seasons, Drinkwitz was on staff at Boise State University, where he served most recently as the Broncos offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2015). He spent his first season (2014) in Boise as the program's tight ends coach. While there, Drinkwitz helped guide the Broncos to a 2014 Mountain West title, a two-year record of 21-6 (.778) and consecutive bowl wins (2014 Vizio Fiesta and 2015 Poinsettia). He coached seven student-athletes to All-Mountain West honors, including two-time recipient in tight end Jake Roth. He also worked closely with freshman quarterback Brett Rypien in 2015, who garnered First Team All-Mountain West accolades during his first season after finishing 273-of-429 passing (.636) for 3,353 yards with 20 touchdowns.

Before Boise, Drinkwitz was a key figure in back-to-back Sun Belt championships for Arkansas State University in 2012 and 2013. He started with the Red Wolves as the program's running backs coach (2012) before being promote to the co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach (2013). Arkansas State defeated No. 25 Kent State in the 2013 GoDaddy Bowl, the school's first victory over a top-25 team since joining the FBS level, to cap a 10-win (10-3) 2012 season and then repeated as GoDaddy Bowl champions the following year to conclude with eight victories.

Drinkwitz earned his start at the collegiate level on staff at Auburn University, serving as the offensive quality control assistant (2010) and offensive graduate assistant (2011) for two seasons. The Tigers won the SEC in 2010 before going on to claim the BCS Championship with a perfect 14-0 record. Quarterback Cam Newton won the prestigious Heisman Trophy that year after completing 185-of-280 passes for 2,854 yards and 30 touchdowns while throwing only seven interceptions. Newton also accumulated 1,473 yards and an additional 20 touchdowns on 264 rush attempts and caught two passes for 42 yards and a touchdown. The following year, Drinkwitz helped the Tigers finish 8-5 with a Chick-fil-A Bowl title.

Drinkwitz also had coaching stops at Springdale High School in Springdale, Arkansas (offensive assistant [2004], offensive line coach and run game coordinator [2006] and offensive coordinator [2007-09]) and Alma Middle School in Alma, Arkansas (head coach [2005]).

A native of Alma, Arkansas, Drinkwitz graduated magna cum laude from Arkansas Tech with a bachelor's degree in education in 2004 and was the student body president before beginning his coaching career at the prep level in his hometown.

Drinkwitz is married to the former Lindsey Sivils of Alma, Arkansas, and they are the parents of four daughters Addison, Emerson, Ella, and Parker Lynn.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

The University of Missouri was founded in 1839 in Columbia as the first public university west of the Mississippi River. Today, with an enrollment of more than 30,000 students, 13,000 full-time employees and 362,500 alumni, Mizzou is a $5 billion enterprise and an important investment for the state and nation.

Mizzou students represent every Missouri county, all 50 states and more than 100 countries. Surging by 16 percent, the increase represented the second-largest jump in Mizzou's freshman class during the past decade.

Based on quality of teaching, research and scholarship, Mizzou is one of only 38 public U.S. universities invited to membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities. AAU membership helps Mizzou attract external funding and recruit top faculty and students.

The state's largest and most comprehensive university, Mizzou has more than 300 degree programs — including 125 online options — through 13 colleges and schools and is the only public university nationwide that can claim schools or colleges of medicine, veterinary medicine, agriculture, engineering, arts and science, law and a 10 megawatt research reactor — all on the same campus. Mizzou is also building a new, state-of-the-art research reactor to secure a domestic supply of cancer-fighting radioisotopes and to support Missouri's economy and workforce.

The university's nationally prominent faculty bring discoveries into the classroom, publish more than 3,000 books and scholarly articles each year and spends more than $500 million annually on research; they account for about 75 percent of the research expenditures among the state's public universities.

Last year, MU awarded more than 7,000 degrees - and the career outlook for Mizzou graduates is bright. A recent survey shows that more than 95 percent of MU graduates have found successful career outcomes, including work, military, public service or further education.

Among Missouri public universities, MU grants 31 percent of bachelor's degrees, 15 percent of master's degrees and 41 percent of doctoral degrees.

Undergraduate research, study abroad, graduate programs, professional schools and the discovery of new knowledge through research add unparalleled value to a Mizzou degree. In the past 30 years, Mizzou students in community engaged service learning courses have served more than 4.6 million hours and have contributed over $50 million in positive economic impact to the state of Missouri.

Supporters worldwide invest in Mizzou by making private gifts for scholarships, academic programs, facilities and life-changing research. As Mizzou's boldest investment in its history, MizzouForward is a 10-year, $1.5 billion transformational effort that focuses on faculty excellence, infrastructure growth and student success to ensure the university is providing world-class education and conducting leading-edge research.

Designated a botanic garden, Mizzou's 1,265-acre main campus features more than 42,000 plants and trees. Many university buildings are listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Citizens across the state connect with Mizzou by participating in extension programs in every county, visiting MU Health Care specialists, competing in state competitions in Mizzou facilities and cheering on the Missouri Tigers at athletics events. A member of the Southeastern Conference, Mizzou's NCAA Division I athletics program has 20 sports, many ranked in the top 25 nationally.

Mizzou is the University of Missouri's nickname and is pronounced muh-ZOO. The word Mizzou is an example of clipping. That means a longer word, Missouri, becomes shortened (or clipped) to Mizzou, which is similar but shorter. We're not sure who first used the word Mizzou, but we know it was used in the Missouri Alumni Quarterly (now called MIZZOU) as early as December 1905.

Mizzou also has many fun uses, such as a call-and-response cheer at athletic games in which people on one side shout "M-I-Z," and the other side replies "Z-O-U." The cheer has become so popular that you could receive an "M-I-Z" greeting anywhere in the world. And you know the answer.

For students and former students who use the name Mizzou, the word prompts bonding among generations. Recognition of our nickname has spread beyond our local reach; national sports reporters now commonly refer to Mizzou teams. Regardless of its origin, the nickname Mizzou is as much a part of campus tradition as Homecoming and the Columns. After all, there's only one Mizzou!

PROUD PARTNER OF MIZZOU ATHLETICS

LAIRD VEATCH
ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Laird Veatch's first year as University of Missouri Director of Athletics in 2024-25 was one of record-setting achievements, program milestones and a renewed focus on Mizzou's "Will to Win" in a transformative time in college athletics.

Veatch steered Mizzou through a year that included the finalization of the "House vs. NCAA" settlement with a steady hand and a laser focus, which has positioned the Tigers to seize its opportunities in the coming years. All the while, competitively, in 2024-25, Mizzou saw a second-straight 10-win season by the football team, a return to the NCAA Tournament by the men's basketball team, a national third-place finish by the gymnastics squad and a Sweet 16 appearance by the volleyball team. Additionally, three Mizzou student-athletes won individual national championships on the year (Helen Hu, balance beam; Jonathan Seremes, triple jump; Valentina Barrios, javelin). Veatch and team also hired nationally acclaimed women's basketball coach Kellie Harper to lead the Tigers on the hardwood into the future.

Recognizing the need to modernize Mizzou's fundraising structure to best align with the future, in year one Veatch also spearheaded a reimagining of the Tiger Scholarship Fund as the Mizzou Athletics Fund to more clearly align donor benefits with contributions that will be vital to Mizzou's continued competitive success, and launched the Mizzou Leadership Circle to recognize and steward top donors who give above and beyond seat-related donations. Over 350 supporters have become members of the Mizzou Leadership Circle in year one.

On Nov. 30, 2024, Mizzou broke ground on the Memorial Stadium Centennial Project, a $250 million renovation to the north end zone of historic Memorial Stadium that will include enhancements to fan amenities and expanded premium area seating to ensure Memorial Stadium remains a premier venue for college football while honoring its tradition of excellence and service to Mizzou. By the end of 2024-25, ahead of opening prior to the 2026 football season, fundraising for the Memorial Stadium Centennial Project reached the $100 million mark of the athletic department's $125 goal.

Highlights of a record-breaking 2024-25 fundraising year include a $25 million anonymous commitment to the stadium project, a generous philanthropic gift from longtime benefactor Audrey J. Walton to fund significant enhancements to Mizzou's Audrey J. Walton Track and Field and Soccer Stadium and a total of 13 seven-figure gifts.

In the classroom in 2024-25, Mizzou student-athletes set a single-semester grade point average record of 3.44 in the fall and followed it up with a 3.40 in the spring, marking 17-straight semesters the department has notched an average GPA of 3.0 or higher. Mizzou also led the SEC and ranked 12th nationally in community service hours as recorded by HelperHelper.

Veatch, a former football student-athlete at Kansas State University, is a 25-year veteran of intercollegiate athletics and was named Mizzou's Director of Athletics effective May 1, 2024 after serving in the same role at the University of Memphis since October 2019.

At Memphis, Veatch oversaw multiple facility projects and renovations, including an indoor football facility, a new tennis center, an Olympic sports weight room and nutrition center and the beginning of a $220 million renovation to Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium. In April 2024, Veatch's forward-thinking NIL mindset was on display nationally, when Fortune 50 company FedEx announced a $25 million investment to create an innovative NIL program benefiting Memphis student-athletes who will be promoting FedEx initiatives.

Veatch is a leader who is familiar to many in the Mizzou community. He spent five years at Mizzou from 1997-2002, the last three as assistant athletic director for development, where he oversaw the department's fundraising activities with an emphasis on facility and capital fundraising projects. Veatch also served as general manager of Mizzou Sports Properties from 2003 to 2006 and as regional vice president for Learfield Sports in Missouri from 2006 to 2010. At Mizzou, Veatch managed the Tiger Scholarship Fund annual giving program and directed the department's comprehensive capital campaign.

Veatch also has served in athletics administrative positions at the University of Texas (1995-97), Iowa State University (2002-03), Kansas State University (2010-2017) and the University of Florida (2017-19).

In 2010, Veatch returned to his alma mater and held several positions in Kansas State's athletics administration, most recently as deputy athletic director and chief of staff (2016-17). Veatch's first experience in the SEC came at Florida, where he served as executive associate athletic director for internal affairs from 2017 to 2019.

Veatch began his professional career in 1995 at the University of Texas, assisting with the development program as well as the external affairs area as a graduate assistant while earning his master's degree in sports administration in 1997.

Veatch received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Kansas State in 1995 where he was a four-year letterman at linebacker for College Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Snyder from 1990-94 and served as team captain as a senior. He was a starter on K-State's Copper and Aloha Bowl teams in 1993 and 1994 and earned honorable mention All-Big Eight Conference honors in 1994.

He was also a two-time CFA Academic All-American, was Academic All-Big Eight four times and was a Hitachi/CFA Scholar-Athlete in 1994.

Veatch and his wife, Brandy, have three daughters, Jordyn, Taylor and Sydney, and one son, Dru.

FAUROT FIELD AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

The storied history of Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field combines the best of old and new. Opened in 1926, the stadium has seen tremendous growth throughout the years, but Tiger fans are proud of the traditional feel and atmosphere the stadium lends itself to on game day. Mizzou played its 500th all-time game at Memorial Stadium against Southeast Missouri on Sept. 14, 2019, and owns an all-time record of 317-195-19 in 99 seasons of play at the historic venue.

In 2019, the $98 million South End Zone Facility was completed and is the new home of Mizzou Football. Construction of the nearly 200,000-square-foot facility, which includes more than 150,000 square feet of enclosed space, started in 2018 with the demolition of the stadium's south end zone grandstands and was completed in time for the 2019 home opener against West Virginia.

The Tigers' football operations area includes team and staff locker rooms, an enhanced sports medicines, a weight room, nutrition oasis and equipment room, as well as team and position meeting rooms, and coaches offices. A grand lobby entrance at field level showcasing Mizzou's proud football tradition greets visitors, and a recruiting lounge allows the Tigers' staff to host recruits.

Debuting in 2014 was a spacious new upper deck (called the Tiger deck) and a beautiful lounge/club level just below (called the columns club), which features 1,200 luxury seats and first-class amenities. Fans saw many changes for 2013, including a renovated west press box/luxury suite tower, as well as a change to the historical hill beyond the north end zone.

The hill was moved closer to the field to allow for an expansion of the north concourse area — providing much more space for fans to congregate during games. The historic Rock M was broken down and stored away safely during the summer and brought back with the same rocks to maintain the important historical landmark that Tiger fans have grown to love.

Prior to the 2012 season, a sparkling new FieldTurf field was installed on Faurot Field to commemorate Mizzou's first year in the Southeastern Conference, as well as to reflect a new graphic identity partnership with Nike.

An exciting new addition to the game-day atmosphere was unveiled before the 2009 home opener, when a high-definition video board debuted. With a video display spanning 80-by-31½ feet, the new display gives Tiger fans some of the best HD viewing in the Midwest, to go along with an improved sound system throughout the stadium.

Eye-catching ribbon boards, providing real-time stats, out-of-town scores and other information, were installed on the facades of both the east and west structures prior to the 2014 season.

The original stadium, built at a cost of $350,000, was the product of coach Gwinn Henry's championship seasons of 1924-25, and a vision of athletics director Chester L. Brewer. It was carved out of "a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the university," chronicled Bob Broeg, longtime sports editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and unofficial historian of Missouri football.

Though the seating capacity is listed at 62,621, crowds in excess of 75,000 have seen the Tigers play in Columbia — against Texas in 1979 and a record 75,298 against Penn State in 1980.

Mizzou packed in a then-modern-day record crowd of 71,004 on Oct. 24, 2009, against Texas — marking the largest crowd to see a game at Faurot Field since 1983.

That was matched in 2010 against Oklahoma during Mizzou's memorable Homecoming win over the top-ranked Sooners, and matched again in 2011 against Iowa State, and in 2012 against Georgia, Arizona State and Alabama. Capacity dropped temporarily to 67,124 for the 2013 season, due to construction of the east side, and the reconfiguration of the Rock M hill.

Mizzou fans have helped make Memorial Stadium one of the nation's premier college football venues for many years. The recent upgrades to the facilities show Mizzou's commitment to enhancing the game-day experience for all fans who attend games and make Memorial Stadium a great place to play college football. SOUTH END ZONE FACILITY

Prior to the 2019 season, Mizzou Football players reported for the first day of fall training camp in the brand-new South End Zone Facility, which had been in the works for nearly two years after being approved in June 2017. The state-of-the-art, $98 million facility includes an operations area with team and staff locker rooms, an enhanced sports medicine facility featuring a hydrotherapy area with recovery pools, Hyroworx-and lap pools, an extensive weight room and training area, nutrition oasis and equipment room, as well as team and position meeting rooms, and coaches' offices.

Also in the building are 16 suites, a 750-person field-level club similar to AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, a 1,254-seat indoor club area with food service and restrooms and general seating for approximately 1,324 fans. A new concourse now links the stadium's East and West stadium areas and provides new restrooms and concessions for all fans to enjoy. A full kitchen in the facility will serve the new premium areas, and new video boards will further enhance the Mizzou game-day experience.

The football program, which had been housed at the Missouri Athletics Training Center (MATC) since the 1980s, moved its entire operation to the South End Zone Facility, which in turn allowed for that space to be repurposed to better serve the needs of all Mizzou student-athletes and athletics staff. The MATC is home to the department's student-athlete academic support unit, primary weight room and dining facility, as well as offices and locker rooms for the Tigers' highly successful women's soccer and track and field programs, as well as the administrative units of business and compliance.

STEPHENS INDOOR FACILITY

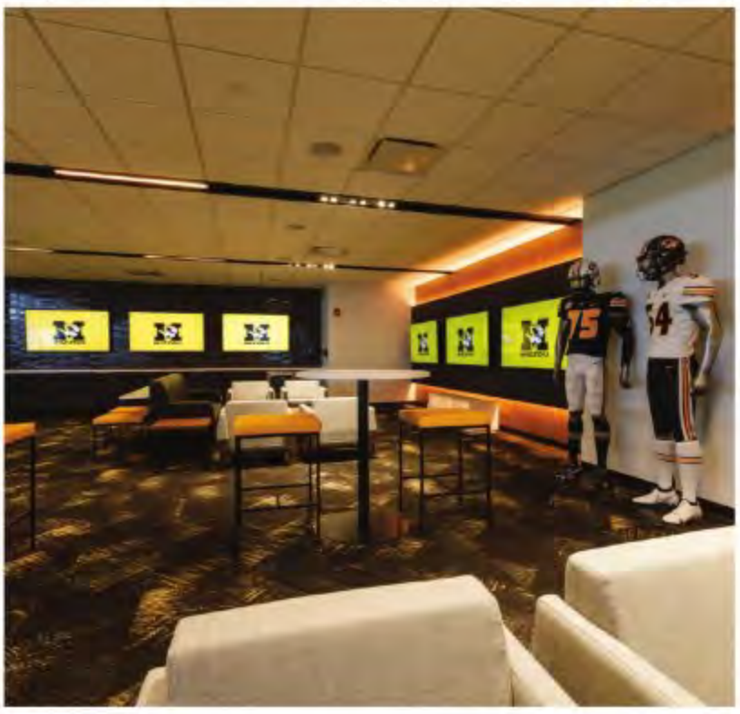
The Stephens Indoor Facility – an 86,400 square foot practice space for University of Missouri football – opened in the summer 2023.

The newest Mizzou Athletics facility, located adjacent to the South End Zone building and Memorial Stadium, is named for MU alumni and donors Brad and Rachel Stephens.

Brad Stephens earned his bachelor's degree in finance and marketing in 1997 while Rachel is a 1998 graduate of the School of Journalism and a past member of the University of Missouri Alumni Association's Board of Directors.

The Stephens Indoor Facility includes a full-length football field with a state-of-the-art 3D3-60 AstroTurf Field System. The field has run-off distances beyond the end zones and along the sidelines for student-athlete safety. The facility features a Daktronics videoboard, an upper mezzanine level with a viewing lobby and gameday facilities including expanded restrooms and recruiting areas.

St. Louis-based architect HOK and its Kansas City, Mo.-based sports division, HOK-Sport, led the planning and design of the Stephens Indoor Facility. River City Construction served as the general contractor. The project received unanimous approval from the Board of Curators in May 2021.



MEMORIAL STADIUM CENTENNIAL PROJECT

Designed to preserve the stadium's tradition-rich elements while embracing a vibrant future for Mizzou, the $250 million Memorial Stadium Improvements Project will enhance the fan experience by further enclosing the north end of the stadium and adding a variety of new premium seating options along the north edge of the stadium along with other upgrades throughout the facility. The Board of Curators approved the resolution on April 18 with the current schedule developed by DLR Group expecting the project to be completed by the start of the 2026 college football season, coinciding with the 100-year anniversary of Mizzou's first game at Memorial Stadium.

Memorial Stadium planned renovations envision up to 160,500 square feet of new construction, including 98,000 square feet that will be enclosed as part of new premium seating areas. The project will explore the development of 14 field-level open-air suites and two new club sections, including a field-level 300-person Rock M Club built directly under the historic Rock M Hill behind the current north end zone. The renovations could add up to 51 new suites total, including 20 Tiger Dens featuring large social spaces in covered settings. New premium spaces will also include loge seating options and mezzanine club luxury outdoor seats.

MARCHING MIZZOU

Saturday football games in Columbia are filled with excitement and pageantry, and Missouri's famous marching band — Marching Mizzou — is a major part of the spirit that is synonymous with big-time college football.

Marching Mizzou, also known as the "Big 'M' of the Midwest," has grown over its 140-year history to be the most visible and largest ensemble in the School of Music. Although many of its core members are music majors, Marching Mizzou boasts an even higher number of students representing nearly every discipline across campus.

Marching Mizzou advances into its second century with a time-honored tradition of excellence that combines quality musicianship, spirit and pride to create its nationally renowned excitement that blends the great traditions of the University of Missouri with the exciting performance styles of today. With powerful music, creative show designs and a marching style that is clean, precise, quick-moving and entertaining, Marching Mizzou continues to captivate audiences of all ages at football games, parades and performances both domestic and abroad, rightfully taking its place among the nation's oldest and finest university band programs.

Marching Mizzou continues to dominate the collegiate marching arts where in November of 2022 they led the 96th Annual Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and in March of 2024 earned the competitive title of "Best Overall Band" in the St. Patrick's Festival Parade in Dublin, Ireland. In another prestigious milestone, Marching Mizzou has been invited to participate in London Band Week in June 2026, a distinct honor as this is an invitation-only event recognizing elite musical ensembles from around the world.

Arrive early for pregame to witness Marching Mizzou's famous signature maneuver is known as "Flip Tigers." The formation, in which "Mizzou" flips to "Tigers," is performed during pregame to "Fight Tiger," one of the fight songs of the University of Missouri. Never go anywhere during halftime to enjoy a new and captivating show each game and finally join us for postgame to help celebrate a Tiger victory from our stands section in Memorial Stadium.

Marching Mizzou is under the direction of Dr. Amy M. Knopps. Dr. Christian M. Noon, and Dr. Pete Zambito. For further information regarding Marching Mizzou, please contact the School of Music at (573) 882-3439.

TIGER RADIO NETWORK

With more than 50 stations throughout Missouri, the Tiger Network is one of the largest radio networks in college sports.

The "Voice of the Tigers" is Mike Kelly, who is beginning his 32nd season calling the play-by-play for Mizzou Football and enters 2024 having called every single Mizzou Football game since 1994 (383 consecutive). A 1984 graduate of Southern Illinois University, Kelly was a vital member of the KMOX Radio sports staff in St. Louis from 1988-97. In addition to football, he's been the play-by-play voice of Missouri basketball for the past 33 seasons – calling 1,064 games – after spending the 1990-91 campaign as color analyst, while also hosting Tiger Talk since 1989. He's also served as a play-by-play announcer for CBS Radio Sports' coverage of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship and earned a play-by-play stint for the network's coverage of the 1999 NFC Championship Game in St. Louis.

Joining Kelly in the broadcast booth is former Tiger and NFL standout Howard Richards, who is in his 15th season as color analyst. A native of St. Louis, Richards was a four-year letterman and starter at 40 consecutive games at right tackle for coaches Al Onofrio (1977) and Warren Powers (1978-80). A standout offensive lineman, Richards won All-Big Eight first-team and All-America second-team honors as a senior. He was picked by the Dallas Cowboys in 1981 and spent seven seasons in the NFL. Richards later served 13 years at the Central Intelligence Agency.

Returning for his 34th season as a sideline reporter for Tiger Football is Chris Gervino. A graduate of the University of Missouri School of Journalism and a native of Tulsa, Oklahoma, he was the sports director at KMIZ-TV in Columbia for 10 years before taking over as sports director at KOMU-TV in 1999 and retiring from that post in 2022.

Brad Tregnago is in his 12th year as host of the "Tiger Tailgate" pregame show, while also hosting halftime and postgame coverage. Tregnago has been the play-by-play voice for Mizzou women's basketball since 2012. After graduating from the University of Missouri School of Journalism in 2006, he worked as a news and sports broadcaster for Tiger Radio Network affiliate KWIX/KRES/KIRK/KTCM in Moberly, and flagship stations KCMQ and KTGR in Columbia. He is now a Senior Audio Strategy Coordinator for Learfield.

Matt Michaels enters his ninth season as a contributor across the Tiger Radio Network, and his third as a producer for Mizzou Football broadcasts. Originally from the Chicago area, Matt graduated from the Missouri School of Journalism in 2009. He's since worked with Tregnago for affiliate KWIX/KRES/KIRK/KTCM in Moberly and hosted the afternoon sports talk program at flagship station KTGR in Columbia for seven years. Today, Matt works for Learfield as a Network Coordinator, along with hosting Tiger Network programming and serving as color commentator and play-by-play broadcaster for Mizzou Baseball.

Mizzou Sports Properties is responsible for securing corporate sponsorships and advertising as well as promoting MU's men's and women's sports programs. MSP is also responsible for the radio broadcasts of football, men's and women's basketball, and baseball games, along with the weekly coaches' shows. Mizzou Sports Properties is a venture of Learfield. Josh Pell serves as the General Manager of Mizzou Sports Properties.

Learfield unlocks the value of college sports for brands and fans through an omnichannel platform. The company's extensive commerce, experiential and media solutions create ultimate opportunities for fan engagement. The Learfield suite of services includes licensing and multimedia sponsorship management; publishing, broadcasting, digital and social media; ticket sales and professional concessions expertise; branding; campus-wide business and sponsorship development; and venue technology systems.

Headquartered in Plano, Texas, the company has long had the privilege of being an advocate for intercollegiate athletics and the student-athlete experience. Since 2008, it has served as title sponsor for the acclaimed Learfield Directors' Cup, supporting athletics departments across all divisions.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF HOMECOMING

MIZZOU 3, KANSAS 3

THE FIRST HOMECOMING GAME – NOVEMBER 25, 1911

ROLLINS FIELD – COLUMBIA, MO.

"Homecoming" is a commonplace event at most colleges and high schools in America, but Tiger lore says the nationwide tradition began at Ol' Mizzou in 1911. Other schools make similar claims to being the originators, but Mizzou's unique story adds considerable credence to MU's place in history.

From 1891 to 1910, the Mizzou-Kansas game was played in either Kansas City or St. Joseph, but in 1911 it was to be played on a college campus – in Columbia – for the first time. The Missouri Valley Conference had ruled all conference games had to be played at a campus site.

Chester L. Brewer, Mizzou's director of athletics and football coach at the time, wanted to make sure the game was a success in its first year in Columbia, and he wanted to add some spice to the season-ending game. He issued a plea to Mizzou alumni – and especially former Tiger football players – to "Come Home" for the game.

They did in droves, with a record crowd of 9,000 overflowing Rollins Field, which was located on campus where Stankowski Field is today.

With four minutes to play and MU trailing 3-0, Tigers captain Glen Shuck booted a game-tying field goal from a difficult angle. Then, little Billy Blees caught a rampaging KU fullback in the open field in the final seconds to preserve the tie and was carried off the field by his teammates.

Hence, "Homecoming" was born. Little did Brewer know that his idea would grow to become Mizzou's biggest annual tradition. The core elements of most Homecoming celebrations today – pep rallies, a parade, a bonfire and a football game – were all a part of Mizzou's 1911 event. In the days leading up to the Nov. 25, 1911 game, several "mass meetings of rooters" were held, according to the Columbia Daily Tribune. More than 2,000 people attended the Nov. 24 evening pep rally, where they listened to speeches predicting a victorious game and practiced old and new cheers. Fans joined a torchlight parade to start the evening ceremonies, which included a bonfire on the practice field.

Since then, other festivities have become part of the week-long celebration. Probably the most iconic are the campus decorations, or "House Dec," a family-friendly event that draws scores of people to Greektown on Friday night. Other activities include a student talent show, campus blood drive, community service projects and the Saturday morning downtown parade.

Mizzou has a 68-40-5 record in Homecoming games and comes into this year's game having won a program-record eight in a row, including last year's 21-17 decision over Auburn. Not surprisingly, Kansas has been the most common Homecoming opponent – 27 times – with the Tigers leading in those games, 18-7-2, although the two clubs did not meet on Homecoming from 1960 until 2000.

Mizzou will host Massachusetts for the 114th edition of Homecoming on Saturday, September 27, only the second time the Tigers have hosted Homecoming in the month of September (1974).

RETIRED NUMBERS

ED 'BRICK' TRAVIS

From St. Charles, Mo., Travis starred for the Tigers as a tackle in 1919-20 earning All-Missouri Valley Conference honors both years. He went on to play professional football with Rock Island (Ill.) in 1921, and the St. Louis All-Stars in 1923. He was inducted into the State of Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1972, and the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1974. He was a member of the University's first Intercollegiate Athletic Committee. Players did not have numbers when Brick played, but he was added to Mizzou's wall of honor in 2019.

#23 JOHNNY ROLAND

Johnny Roland undoubtedly was the biggest recruiting catch by Dan Devine during his 13 years as football coach at the University of Missouri.

Roland, of Corpus Christi, Texas, was Ol' Mizzou's leading rusher and scorer as a sophomore in 1962 with 830 yards and 78 points, respectively. However, he specialized primarily as a defensive back in his junior and senior seasons.

Capping MU's 1965 Sugar Bowl season, Roland was a consensus first-team All-American on defense. Yet, Devine utilized the 6-2, 207-pound athlete's talents to the fullest — often inserting Roland as a ball-carrier and a blocking back whenever the Tigers penetrated their opponent's 20-yard line. He also returned punts.

Roland shared the captaincy of the '65 team and became Mizzou's first back to win All-America laurels in 23 years. He went on to win NFL Rookie-of-the-Year with the St. Louis Cardinals, and went on to a long career as a backfield coach in the NFL. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

#29 ROGER WEHRLI

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career.

Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes.

A consensus All-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial All-Pro selection. Wehrli was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004, and later was also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

#27 BROCK OLIVO

Brock Olivo came to Mizzou with modest fanfare, but thanks to his legendary work ethic, he became one of the great inspirational players in school history.

A native of Washington, Mo., Olivo helped restore pride to his home state program that had fallen on hard times when he led the Tigers to the 1997 Holiday Bowl – MU's first bowl appearance since 1983.

Olivo made his mark at tailback and on special teams during a career that spanned from 1994-97. He left as the school's all-time leading rusher, with 3,026 yards, and his 188 points ranked him fourth on the career scoring list. Olivo became the first Tiger to rush for 200 yards in a game twice, doing so during his sophomore season with a 222-yard outing against Northeast Louisiana and following with a 201-yard day against Iowa State later in the year.

The Big Eight Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year in 1994, Olivo went on to ensure his spot in Tiger Football history when he won the Mosi Tatupu National Special Teams Player of the Year Award in 1997 – making him the first Tiger to ever win a national individual award.

#37 BOB STEUBER

More than 50 years after hanging up his competitive cleats at Missouri, Bob Steuber still ranks as the Tigers' 17th-best ground-gainer of all time.

Steuber was the big, fast back — a 210-pounder who could turn the 100 in 10-flat — who made Don Faurot's new-fangled Split-T formation such a rousing success in 1941 and '42. Switched from end to halfback as a junior and finished as the nation's number-three rusher in 1941, and the rushing runner-up in 1942. His career total was 2,030 yards, which stood as the Mizzou record for 28 years, until surpassed by Joe Moore in 1970.

He still holds the Missouri record for highest average per carry in a career (7.4), while his record of most career points (222) stood until 1992.

All-America in 1942, Steuber was drafted by the Chicago Bears, but entered the service, and later played professionally with the Cleveland Browns, L.A. Dons and Buffalo Bills.

#42 DAROLD JENKINS

A center-linebacker for Don Faurot's 1940 and '41 Tiger teams, Darold Jenkins was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1976. He captained the '41 Tiger club that was considered to be the best of Faurot's 19 Missouri teams, and went to the Sugar Bowl.

A native of Higginsville, Mo., Jenkins was named to 17 All-America teams in 1941. He later was a bomber pilot in World War II, and on his 27th mission was shot down. He spent 17 months in a German POW camp.

After discharge from the service, he served as trial counsel for the State Highway Commission. He died in 1986.

#44 PAUL CHRISTMAN

"Pitchin" Paul Christman set virtually all of the passing records at Mizzou, most of which stood intact for nearly 40 years.

Christman won All-America honors in 1939 and '40 and was MU's first player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. He is the only Mizzou player (until 2007) to finish among the top five in Heisman Trophy voting, as he finished third in 1939 and fifth in 1940.

Following his career, during which he led the Tigers to their first conference championship and bowl appearance under Don Faurot, Christman served in the U.S. Navy from 1941-45.

He played four years of pro football with the Chicago Cardinals ('46-49) and finished with the Green Bay Packers in 1950. He was an accomplished network television analyst and commentator, teaming with Curt Gowdy on early AFL telecasts. A native of St. Louis, he died suddenly at the age of 51, in 1970.

#83 KELLEN WINSLOW

An All-American on and off the field, Kellen Winslow may be the greatest tight end ever to play the game. At MU, he was a two-time all-league choice and a consensus All-American as a senior. But the 28 passes he caught for 479 yards and six TDs in 1978 were just the tip of the iceberg.

During a nine-year career with San Diego, Winslow starred with Dan Fouts and Charlie Joiner in the most prolific passing attack ever unleashed on NFL gridirons. He caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and scored 45 TDs.

He's best remembered for a '81 playoff game against the Miami Dolphins, when he caught 13 passes and blocked a FG with :04 remaining to send the game into OT. San Diego went on to win, 41-38.

Winslow was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 1995, and was a 2003 inductee into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, and was honored in 2004 as an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award Winner. An attorney, Winslow previously worked as part of the Mizzou Radio team, and later served as the athletic director at Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wis., and then at Florida A&M.

EVolve

EVolve® is a time-of-use rate in which energy consumed during specific time periods will be charged certain rates. Boone Electric offers on-peak, off-peak and super-off peak periods. It empowers members to shape their own energy bill. The more tasks you can shift to when the cost is low, the lower your bill will be. While it's difficult to change the time you heat and cool your home, it can be fairly easy to adjust the time you do other things like laundry, dishes or charging an electric vehicle. Interested members can call 573-449-4181.
